Eager parents take free first-aid course

A GROUP of parents have had priceless life-saving training for free in Camberwell.

The free child first-aid training venture was held by St John Ambulance and Target Australia.

The course covered first-aid techniques for injuries such as fractures, insect bites, child and infant resuscitation, poisoning and burns.

Target Camberwell store manager Ida Gianfagna said they were "delighted with the overwhelmingly positive response" from parents.
